A MYSTERY TOWARDS VALENTINE'S DAY

The students are selecting four people for the Valentine's dance.

These four people are to be selected as King, Queen, Prince, and Princess. It is a great mystery to know who it will be.

Every year the Valentine dance known as the "Sweetheart's Ball" takes place in the Wrangell Institute gym. The King, Queen, Prince, and Princess will be selected at this dance.

Dear Irena and Sharon,

We have received the three January copies of the Wrangell Eagle and we are always happy to receive them because there are many of us former Wrangell students and other students who like to know what's going on over there. We have sent you five copies of Channel Light and we would very much like to have five copies of each of the Wrangell Eagle. As I said, there are lots of students who like to read your issue and at this school there are so many students that it is hard for most of them to get a chance to read your paper. We'll appreciate it very much if you send five copies of each issue in the next few months. Mrs. Prock, our Journalism teacher, enjoys reading your paper and so do the other teachers.

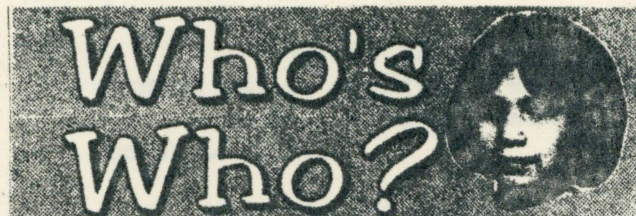

Here, the second semester started on the 22nd of January so we are kept busy most of the time. I hope all of the students over there are enjoying the snow and cold weather. Around here it's been awfully cold too, 6 this morning. Some of the seniors who are taking courses at S.J. College find it hard to walk over to the campus because it is so cold.

I, personally, thank you for sending me a Wrangell Eagle for my very own. (About four now). The first thing I look at is the Typograph. Keep up the good work and again, thank you.

This boy is very well known for chasing girls. He is very mischievous and is in one of the primary classes. He is about 3 feet and is chubby. He has black hair and black eyes.

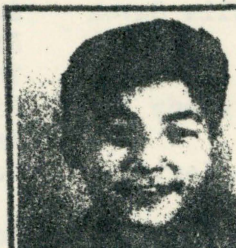

His home is located in a village on St. Lawrence Island far up north in the Bering Sea.

WHO IS HE???

This girl has a cute smile and is also in one of the primary classes. Besides having a cute smile, she is one of the campus' little pretty girls. For a long time she wore a little two-tone blue mini-dress. It was a question as to when she would change it.

Her home is near the Kuskokwim Mountains, northeast of Bethel.

WHO IS SHE???

Sports

Leonard Willoya

On January 27th, the Wrangell Institute A Team played against the Junior High A Team in town. The scores were real close all through the game. Almost every player scored. There were a few that didn't. During half time the score was quite close.

At the end of the game there was an over time with the score of 17-17. The game lasted another three minutes. At the end of the game the score ended with 19-17 with the town team winning.

Friday night, February 9th, there was a fun game of basketball played in the Institute gym. Staff members alone with children of staff members played against the Eagles' A Squad.

The game was a lot of fun to watch.

HAIKU

We share the thoughts,
The moods, the feelings
Of the Japanese poets.

Chilly, cold winter
Snow everywhere on the ground
Calm days after storms.

...Ruth Jenkins

Hear the wind blowing
A blizzard is passing by
Sure sign of winter

...Kathy McIntyre

Glittering, shining.
Stars twinkling in the sky.
Tiny from the earth.

House, big warm inside,
Covered with snow on outside.
Smoke comes out on top.

...Mida Savok

Blowing with anger.
Over the cold frozen land.
Wind of ice and snow.

INTERPRETATIONS FROM "The Loon's Necklace"

Kahlura, a poor and blind man,
A man who worked as a medicine
Man, but yet he sits and thinks,
While his wife would talk and talk
Of all the things he should have done.

But he, as a poor and blind man,
Would just sit as though he Never heard a thing. And
Then one day, while talking to his
Gods, they told him the wolves
Would soon attack.

He went about to tell them, but
They would only laugh, then
Suddenly one day, a howling of
Barks came, and before they knew
It, a pack of wolves were coming
Toward the village.

So he, as the poor and blind man, felt
This was the time for magic.
He went into the forest and talked
With his gods, then taking
His arrow, he shot straight ahead.
His arrows were like magic.

And he, as a poor and blind man,
Killed all the wolves, and soon
The wolves were gone, then the
Village had peace and happy living,
And Kahlura went to the forest
To visit his father the Loon.

For he, as a poor and blind man,
Had gone to his father, the Loon, to
Ask him if he could have his sight.
The Loon said climb on my back,
So they dived four times and
Kahlura had his sight.

...Edith Oktollik

Twice when the wolves were coming
He gave a warning.
His people didn't care about it.
Soon the wolves took over, bit by bit.
Then he went out to a wooded place,
With his magic bow and arrow
And his old blind face.
Finally he visited Father Loon
And asked to be given eyes soon.

WORDS IN READING

Ugly Words

In Elementary school

You don't learn to play the oboe.

It's for reitred people.

The excuse is really you're too lazy.

You find on the atlas your hometown on
A funny angle.

Tonite the coca tasted bitter,

So you say I'll caution my sister.

You think drinking coffee is a
Ceremony meant for older people.

"Garments" is too big a word

When you could just say clothes.

....Christine Thomas

Scary Words

When I dream about ghosts I scream.

The witch was in the night.

The devil is a very scary one.

The little boy saw a big grizzly bear

And he was scared. The movie was about Monsters.

Owls frighten because in the night

They have big eyes. A dead man woke up

In the night. The woman screeched when

She saw the anake. A girl was running

Away from a wolf and some dogs.

...Filama Dock

Beautiful Words

The gold mining is wonderful.

There's the fancy furniture I like.

The sunrise is coming soon.

The flowers are growing fast.

The rainbow has beautiful colors.

The castle is very old.

The stars shine so bright.

I watch the ballet show.

...Bessie Phillip

In the moonlight the stars

Were shining bright.

The whole world was full of light.

I could hear the sound of music

And it's glow was joyful.

...Fannie Cleveland

The flowers are very lovely.

Some boys are very handsome.

The girl has a pretty dress to wear with

Her jewels. Heaven is a beautiful place.

Boys and girls are joyful.

The birds look beautiful with bright colors.

...Virginia Thompson

Powerful Words

He is the courage of our village.

The man is wild in killing and super in Working. He is mighty husky one.

He is a muscular, vigorous and strong
Man named Joe.

He is a fierce creature in our village.

...Christopher Roberts

Creepy Words

Mouse on a plate of food eating away.

Rat running across a room.

Ape pulling a box loaded with rats.

Snake climbing a tree.

Owl hooting while you sleep away.

Anteater eating red ants.

Seal barking while the mink eats a

Large mouse. Eel is full of charges.

While a worm is very slimy.

...Herbert McIntyre

The girls went to a spooky house and

Saw a spooky ghost. The boys were scared

And didn't want to follow the other boys.

The teacher told the boys and girls about the haunted house. They saw a ghost all

Black and white and then had a party and

Saw a witch with a magic wand flying on

Her broom. They saw many skeletons on the Floor all white and very creepy.

Crack went the spooky door. At night all

The ghosts and skeletons came out and made

Funny faces. They scared all the people

In town. All the people went to another

Town because their town was spooky.

...Helena Tocktoo

Scary Words

It was gloomy when I heard a noise in the Empty house. A shadow moved, maybe a monster. Fannie whispered to me and we

Sneaked under the bed. I heard a creaking

Outside. An echo repeated my name over

And over. There's a ghost in the old house

Who says, "Boo--oo."

...Ethel Tritt

The wicked witch had an awful smell.

She had a dreadful apple.

The evil man was mad.

The house was haunted.

The house was spooky with ghosts.

The rotten tree fell near the house.

The items for HAIKU, INTERPRETATIONS and
WORDS IN READING were developed in Mrs.
Joan Fisher's reading classes.

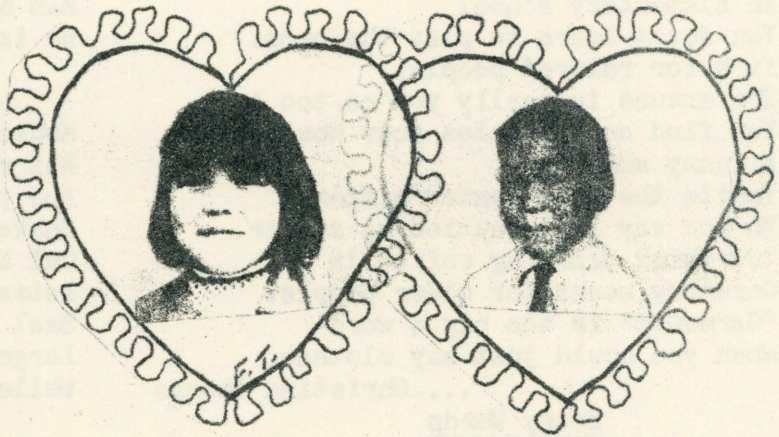

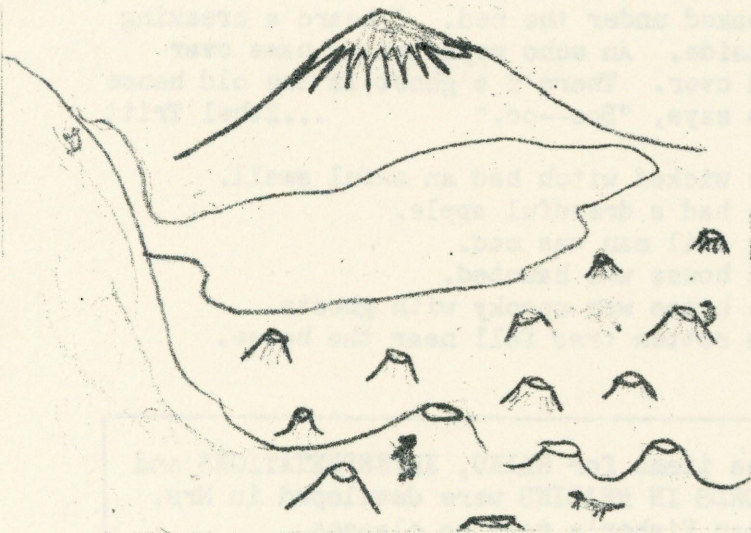

THE VANISHING PRAIRIE by martha macar

Once there was a big plain in the prairie, where there were some prairie dogs. Their names were Topsy, Pauly, Hopsy, Juicy, Soupy, and Yummy. There were six prairie dogs in this home. The mother Snopsy was sleeping. These prairie dogs were playing a game called "Catch Our Tail." They had a lot of fun playing it, but in the middle of the game, the youngsters were tired of playing. So they all wandered off to see more exciting things than playing.

So they all separated to see the world of the prairie. Juicy was wondering why they didn't want to play, so he wandered off with Soupy and tried to get Soupy to play with him. But all Soup said was, "Scat Juicy."

So Juicy went to tell Topsy to play with him, but he couldn't find Topsy anywhere. He looked up the hill and went back down. He couldn't find his way home so he called for Yummy. And Yummy said "Be Quiet!!!!"

Then Juicy went to Yummy to see what he was looking at. It was a beautiful mother rabbit, colored brown and white. She had babies colored black and brown. Juicy went to look for Pauly but couldn't find him. So he looked for Hopsy and found him playing with a small white rabbit. He started to play with them too, and had fun again. Topsy, Pauly, Hopsy, Soupy and Yummy were playing with Juicy again.

PRAIRIE DOG FAMILY

It was a sunny morning when the prairie dog family decided to dig up a hole for their home. So they got up. After breakfast they started working. It didn't take long for them to dig a hole for their home.

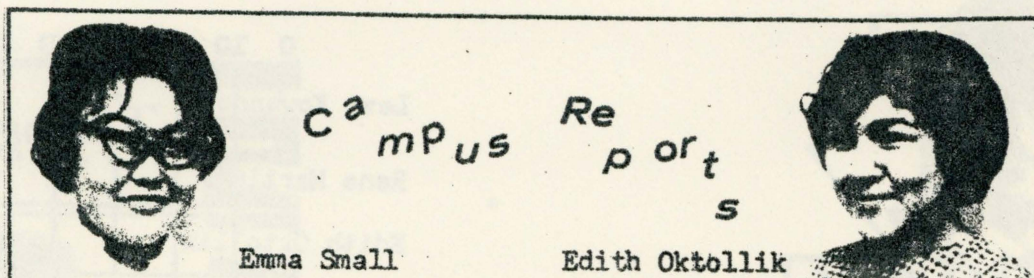

After that they gathered some grass for their underground place. Soon after that was finished they ate supper and it was getting dark. So they went to sleep.

In the morning after breakfast they had a visitor. It was a snake. He was a friendly snake. The following day there was another visitor whose name was Ferret. Also, he went inside the prairie dog's home. Sometimes the visitor runs after the mother. Ferret didn't stay long enough, he went home.

The family went to sleep that night. But in the morning a terrible thing happened. There was a rain storm and there was water running on the plain. Finally it reached the prairie dog's family home. The kids were in the hole. Some of the water came in, then they all went out the hole with their mother.

The kids ran all around to find a higher place where there was not water. Soon they all got dried out and they lived happily every after.

STUDYING ABOUT JAPAN

In social studies we studied about Japan. We learned Japanese words. Several girls got dressed up in kimonos. We're making scrapbooks on Japan. The person who makes the best scrapbook on Japan will get a prize. We'll also have Japanese tea and crackers.

Japan, we learned, is an island country. There are four main islands. They are Hokkaido, Honshu, Shikoku and Kyushu. The capital city, Tokyo, is located on Honshu.

....Christine Thomas

Science students are studying about space. They have made one section of the room a space corner. In this section they put up satellites that the students had drawn.

Many of the science students drew space comics. Some of the comics were very funny.

In classes, students talked about different astronauts and what they wear and their special training. The students also talked about where outer space is and how fast the rocket has to go in order to escape the force of gravity.

Group I divided themselves into Frenchmen, Spaniards and Englishmen. They painted posters, and tried to interest the students in Groups 2, 3, 4, and 5. to come to their colonies in America.

Everyone had an opportunity to sign up for a trip on a French, Spanish or England ship. The French won. Either their posters were the best or the chance to make money fur trapping appealed to the students.

The French poster painters were Sharon Clark, Russell Akers, Lawrence Juneby, Tommy Jimmie, Leonard Willoya and Nicholas.
